Closure of the session

1. The Chairperson said that the current session, the first at which the Committee had met in the summer, had advanced the work of the Committee and showed how important it was to have extra time to look at various strategic issues, including the long overdue consideration of the list of issues prior to reporting. The Committee's work would not have been possible without the tremendous and skilful work done by the interpreters, the précis-writers, the translators, the technicians and the conference officers. He also commended the efforts of those who worked on the concluding observations, the staff at the Petitions Unit and the Secretary. After the customary exchange of courtesies, he declared the fifty-fifth session closed.

The meeting rose at 4.40 p.m.
